Player Movement Rule

16.14 PLAYER MOVEMENT RULE

Player movement between AHAI Tier II Youth Affiliate Organizations is limited by age classification. In addition to the restrictions listed below, players must comply with the Youth Tier II Choice Article in these rules and regulations.

16.14.1 10U - The limit is two (2) players per Tier II Team at the 10U Squirt level who played Tier II the previous year for another Affiliate Organization Tier II program as a Squirt.

16.14.2 12U - The limit is three (3) players per Tier II Team at the 12U Pee Wee level who played Tier II the previous year for another Affiliate Organization Tier II program.

16.14.3 14U - The limit is four (4) players per Tier II Team at the 14U Bantam level who played Tier II the previous year for another Affiliate Organization Tier II program.

16.14.4 There is no limit on Tier II Youth Player movement at the 16U and 18U playing level.

16.14.5 There are two exceptions to the Player Movement limit:

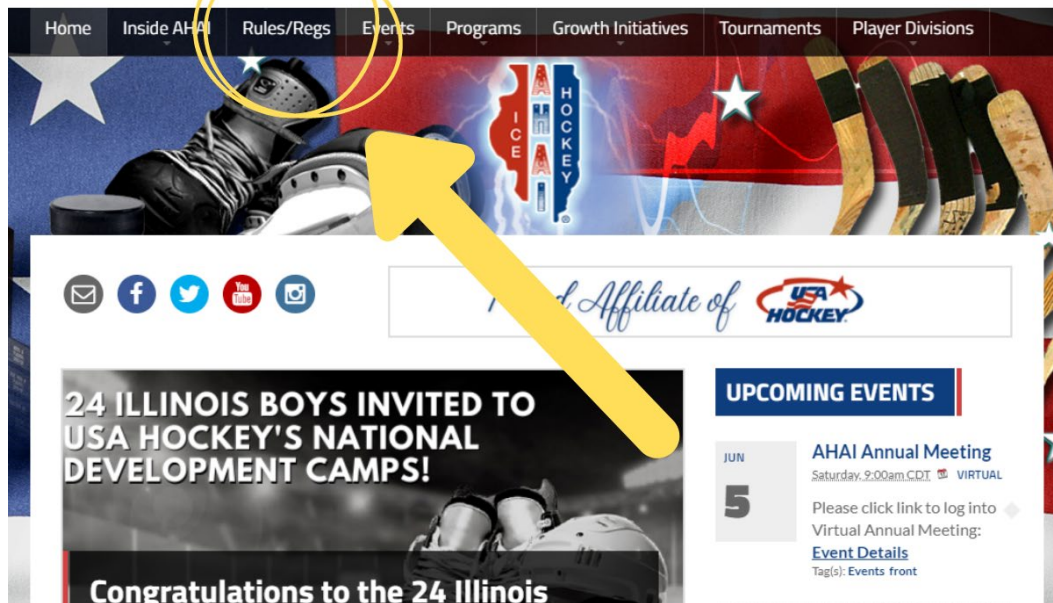

- a. Players who previously played with a Tier II Youth Affiliate Organization, as one of their Two Choices, will not count against the maximum, regardless of their club affiliation the previous Regular Season.
- b. Players who played for a Tier II Youth Affiliate Organization that does not field a team at a level will not count against the maximum for the Tier II Youth Affiliate Organization to which the Player moves.
